

we, the public, has lost a great deal of faith in the ability of governmental agencies such as FCC to respond to us rather than to corporate interests. Please take action in this Sinclair matter and help restore some confidence. Do not let them air this partisan piece.